Children with Disabilities Ages 0-21
Ira, Middletown Springs,
Poultney, Tinmouth, Wells

In compliance with state and federal regulations, we are required to locate and identify any and all resident children between the ages of 0-21 years who may be considered children with disabilities. Also any person between the ages of 3 and 21, who is in need of special education and related services, is entitled to a free and appropriate public education. It is possible that Rutland Southwest Supervisory Union may not be aware of the presence of all children with disabilities residing in our towns. If you know of a child who might be eligible for educational services and is not in school, please notify the Director of Student Support Services at the Rutland Southwest Supervisory Union, 168 York Street, Poultney, VT (802) 287-5286. All information gathered shall remain confidential in compliance with Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (34 CFR Part 99).
