International Exchange Student

Code # F-101

Policy:

In order to prepare students for a diverse world and to become successful citizens in a global society, the Rutland Southwest Supervisory Union and its member districts encourage educational experiences that broaden a student's exposure to different cultures, people, values and experiences. The Rutland Southwest Supervisory Union and its member districts support international exchanges for appropriately aged students.

The Ira Board of School Directors reserve the right to pre-approve or deny all International Exchange Students who may wish to live with Ira families.
